ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING IN ITALY: LAWS AND REGULATIONS

FOR THE PREVENTION AND COUNTERING OF MONEY LAUNDERING AND TERRORISM FINANCING

The Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Counter Terrorism Financing (CTF) regulatory framework is based on a comprehensive set of national, EU and international regulatory sources.

EU guidelines on preventing the use of the financial system for money laundering and terrorism financing are contained in EU Directive 2015/849 of the European Parliament and of the Council dated May 20th 2015 (Fourth Anti-Money Laundering Directive), implemented by EU Directive 2018/843 (Fifth Anti-Money Laundering Directive).

At the national level, prevention and fight against money laundering and terrorism financing is regulated by the following primary laws:

- Italian Legislative Decree no. 109 of 22 June 2007 which sets forth “Provisions to prevent, counter and repress the financing of terrorism and the activity of Countries that threaten peace and international security”, as modified by Legislative Decree 90/2017 which implemented Directive 2015/849/EU;
- Italian Legislative Decree no. 231 of 21 November 2007, transposing EU Directive 2015/849 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2015 (Fourth Anti-Money Laundering Directive) and EU Directive 2018/843 (Fifth Anti-Money Laundering Directive, as modified by Legislative Decree 90/2017 which implemented Directive 2015/849/EU and by Legislative Decree 125/2019 which implemented Directive 2018/843/EU.

The Montepaschi Group has transposed these decrees in its internal regulatory documents.

On its activities of prevention and countering of money laundering and terrorism financing, the Bank is subject to the constant review by its domestic and European Regulators, respectively the Bank of Italy and the European Central Bank.

BMPS GROUP POLICY ON PREVENTION OF MONEY LAUNDERING AND TERRORISM FINANCING

The Montepaschi Group has adopted an AML/CTF Policy as a reflection of its commitment to countering the criminal activities related to money laundering and terrorism financing. Particular attention is given to all AML and CTF measures while considering that the pursuit of profitability and efficiency should always go hand in hand with the effort to effectively ensure the company's integrity.

This global Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Policy applies to the Montepaschi Group at an Enterprise level and describes the policies adopted by the Group in accordance with the rules and principles established by national and EU regulations, in compliance with AML/CTF international standards.

The Global AML Policy is published on the Group website and is available at <https://www.gruppomps.it/static/upload/aml/aml-policy-eng.pdf>

BMPS GROUP MONEY-LAUNDERING AND TERRORIST FINANCING RISK MANAGEMENT

To mitigate the risk of non-compliance with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing requirements, the Group adopted a procedure that involves the following activities:

- Identifying the risk of non-compliance with AML/CTF requirements;
- Management and mitigation of AML/CTF risks;
- Compliance controls (ex-ante and ex-post);
- Advisory and support to Management and branches network on AML/CTF issues;
- On-going AML/CTF risks monitoring and control;
- AML/CFT self-assessment exercise;
- Specific reporting to top management, governing bodies, supervisory bodies and regulators;
- Structuring and provision of specific AML/CTF training courses.

THE BOARD OF STATUTORY AUDITORS AND THE INTERNAL AUDIT DEPARTMENT

The Board of Statutory Auditors supervises, within their powers and responsibilities, the functionality and adequacy of the internal control systems and procedures regarding anti-money laundering and terrorism financing regulations and, in particular, with the reporting obligations of suspicious activity. The Board of Statutory Auditors, through the Internal Audit Department, periodically verifies the functionality and efficiency of the AML/CTF procedures and assesses the validity of the entire system.

The Supervisory Committee pursuant to Legislative Decree 231/01 (appointed by the Board of Directors) supervises the functioning and compliance with the Organizational Model for the prevent crimes that may determine a liability to the Bank due to administrative offenses linked to money laundering, crimes, terrorist financing and use of money, goods or benefits of unlawful origin, self-money laundering, updating and evaluating its adequacy.
