

Enrico Ciai

Economics Degree from the University of Rome, Certified Public Accountant and Registered Auditor.

Enrico joined the Andersen organization in 1981 where he has progressively developed his professional career in the Financial Services Industry of the Audit business, acquiring a profound experience in the Banking and Insurance sectors as Auditor and Advisor. He became Manager in 1986 and Partner in 1995.

In 2002, following an integration agreement, Andersen became part of the Deloitte network using such brand.

Since the above integration, he has been a director of the Board of Deloitte & Touche (auditing Firm of the Italian Network). Until July 2003 he has been Managing Partner of the Audit function and CEO of Deloitte & Touche Italia S.p.A. (auditing Firm, formerly Arthur Andersen S.p.A.).

Until 2005 he has been Managing Partner of the Italian network of Deloitte.

He has been Chairman of the Financial Services Commission of Assirevi (Italian Association of auditing Firms) from 2010 until 2016.

He was the CEO of Deloitte in Central Mediterranean (Italy, Greece and Malta) from October 2016 through May 2019, and also served as the CEO of Deloitte Italy between 2011 and 2019.

He also represented Italy and then the Central Mediterranean member firm as a member of the Deloitte Global Board of Directors, Deloitte Global Governance Committee and EMEA Council (European Executive Committee).

From 1 February 2020, he is an independent professional having terminated his working activity in Deloitte.

From 18 May 2020, he is Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditor.